COUNCIL ON STUDENT SERVICES PRESENTATION

NOVEMBER 30, 2018
Welcome To Hart House
HART HOUSE FOR YOU

Hart House is for everyone. For moments of connection. For a pause in your busy schedule. For workouts that inspire progress not perfection. For fresh ideas and new skills. For the courageous conversations you didn’t expect. For broader perspectives that inspire social change. For navigating difference. For arts, community and dialogue. For food, spaces and wellness. For so much more.
TRI-CAMPUS MANDATE

Fitness Mentorship

- Our Group Fitness Mentorship Program supports four students each year to receive their Ontario Fitness Council (OFC) certification.

- The intention of this program is to create a welcoming space for traditionally underrepresented students at Hart House by broadening and diversifying Hart House’s instructional base.

- Hart House sponsors students for the cost of a textbook, 40 apprenticeship hours needed to complete two exams, and the 2-year OFC membership. 2017-2018 was the pilot year with three students participating and one going on to write exams.
2018-2019:

- Social Justice, Debates & Dialogue and Senior Members Standing Committees
- Community Conversations
- Hart House Global Commons
- Hart House Hancock Lecture
- Classes in communication
- Debating Club programs and competitions
- Hart House Talking Walls, Podcasts and Broadcasts
- Good Ideas Fund

THE STORIES

TERESE PIERRE

"The only way I'm not going to be involved in Hart House as a student is if I go to medical school somewhere outside of Toronto. I feel that Hart House more on my first year because I think it's a really great place. I try to tell people to come and see what Hart House Toronto and you'll find something for you. There's everything here. There's swimming and archery and everything I've ever wanted in an art space at Hart House."

TONY LUONG

"It was about reflecting back on students of different backgrounds talking about a lot of different things, sometimes a bit happy, sometimes not. It was also about creating a safe space for all students."

AMAL ABDUYYE

"Hart House is a place where I can relax and de-stress. The library is very good, so in between classes I always find myself there. The gym is also amazing. It's the only place where I go when the pressure of the workload becomes too much!"

HART HOUSE 100TH ANNIVERSARY
harthouse100@harthouse.ca

On November 11, 2019, Hart House will reach a historic milestone; our 100th anniversary. We are proud to remember our past, celebrate our present, and envision our future. Throughout the year, a series of exciting and innovative events will bring together alumni, students, staff, and the community to showcase the impact of Hart House’s contribution to the University of Toronto and beyond.

• Spring 2019: Spring Reunion events for returning alumni

• Fall 2019: "Open-House" opportunity for visitors to explore all we have to offer.

• Close of 2019: a significant gathering of Hart House supporters will join us in celebration at our Gala, which will feature the unveiling of the Centennial Art Commission in the Great Hall.
• Professor Jill Clark from the Centre for Drama and Performance leading the development of curtain opening theatre performance for Hart House Theatre in the fall of 2019.

• Based on her academic work that explores the Storyweaving methodology, developed by Muriel Miguel, Co-Founder and Artistic Director of New York's Spiderwoman Theater, which combines storytelling and performance to bridge the gaps between the epic, the personal, the everyday and the ritual.

Sample Anniversary Project: Indigenous Storyweaving
“Hart House acts like a hub for community life. It is a recreation centre of sorts, and everyone can find something they love at Hart House. It provides activities that can come as stress-relievers for many students. For myself, Get Crafty on Thursdays was the activity that I could go to, and momentarily forget about my university-related stressors. Concerning life after graduation, it also provides a great opportunity to network with staff and other students – such connections can definitely prove to be beneficial in the future!”
